To the Supream Authority of this Nation, the Commons of England in Parliament Assembled.

The Humble Petition of the Creditors of Sir Peter Temple, Knight and Baronet, whose names are hereunder written.

Humbly sheweth,

THat the said Sir Peter Temple, being many years since indebted to the Petitioners in the severall debts in the Schedule annexed, amounting to above 20000 l. and having a reall Estate in Lands to the value of about 4000 l. per annum, and great store of woods upon those Lands to the value of 10000 l. at the least: And nevertheless intending to defraud his Creditors, of their said debts (a great part whereof is Orphans portions) And being a Member of this House, and having thereby protected his person, and Estate, he hath ever since refused to pay his debts, and hath not paid consideration for the same, and when he discovered, that this Honorable House was inclined to make the Estates of the Members thereof lyable to the payment of their debts for releif of the Subject, then the said Sir Peter still to protect his Estate, made a secret conveyance of all his Estate, Rents and Revenues to some of his own speciall friends, (that is to say) to the Lord Savile and others, and to that conveyance annexed a Schedule of pretended debts, to be paid by the said Trustees forth of the said Rents. Of which debts some were reall, some were fained, But these Petitioners, are by the said fraudulent Deede barred of their remedy against the said Estate, and these Petitioners are like to be all defrauded, unlesse they be relieved by the present Justice of this Honorable Assemblie.

For remedy herein, and forasmuch as the Lands of the said Sir Peter Temple are entailed, and in case the said Sir Peter should happen to dye before provision made, for payment of the said Debts, the Petitioners would be altogether remedilesse, and for as much as he standeth out lawed after Judgment, for severall of the said Debts.

The Petitioners humbly pray that this practise of the said Sir Peter Temple (tending to the ruine of many of the Petitioners) may not be made use of, to the defeating of the Petitioners of their just Debts, but that such part of the said Lands and Woods may bee sold for the speedy payment of the said just debts, as to your Wisdomes and Justice shall seem meet.
